

As a young supply chain management professional, you need critical information to gain a better understanding of the industry as well as to advance your career. The Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals will be your supply chain resource, providing you with the information, networking events, and valuable tips that will guide you along your career path.

Take advantage of CSCMP's discounted Associate Membership rate for those 30 years of age and under. Students can join for just $35.00 a year (verification required)! Join today and start connecting with other young professionals and global supply chain thought leaders.

Your Career

- Get noticed globally by recruiters, leading supply chain management organizations, and practitioners. Post your résumé online for free and search top supply chain positions in CSCMP's Career Center.
- Include CSCMP on your résumé to show you are involved with the world's foremost supply chain organization.

Your Resource

- Reading CSCMP's Supply Chain Quarterly will enable you to contribute to the conversation and speak confidently about supply chain hot topics.
- Student Campus and Careers in Supply Chain Management are exclusive online resources available to answer all your questions about the supply chain profession.
- Search for universities online to research supply chain management courses and programs.
- Continue to brush up on your skills and expand your knowledge. Take one or more of CSCMP's 22 online university course bundles or the Supply Chain Management Essentials web course. Keeping yourself current will make you a greater asset to your company.

Your Connection

- Get connected through Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, CSCMP's blog, and our Tube Channel on YouTube at cscmpsocial.org.
- Reach out to senior executives with our online Member Directory to establish lifelong professional connections.

Not a member? You can still receive the monthly CSCMP Young Professionals and Events E-Bulletins by adding your name to our database. Go to cscmp.org and scroll down to customer service.

[http://cscmp.org/education/
young-professionals.asp](http://cscmp.org/education/young-professionals.asp)

Council of Supply Chain
Management Professionals

The World's Leading Source for the Supply Chain Profession.™